

Claire Morris-Wright

Curriculum Vitae

With my degree from Brighton Art College I moved to Leicester and became one of the founding members of Leicester Print Workshop. I worked as an Exhibitions Officer at the City Gallery Leicester where I helped curate national and international exhibitions and Head of Exhibitions Interpretation at Nottingham Castle Art Gallery. As well as continuing my own practice.

My most recent residency was at Loughborough University and have been interviewed about my prints on BBC Radio 4 as part of the Open Country programme.

I have been a print tutor for Leicester Print Workshop for over six years and I am currently at Goldmark Art in Rutland. I am an active member of Leicester Print workshop and continue to show my work nationally.
